Love is a fire that burns unseen, a wound that aches yet isn't felt, an always discontent contentment, a pain that rages without hurting, a longing for nothing but to long, a loneliness in the midst of people, a never feeling pleased when pleased, a passion that gains when lost in thought.

Luís Vaz de Camões, portuguese poet

In the aesthetic balance in the matrix of the group (and beyond) there has to be room for Eros and Thanatos, to the destructive aggression (sadomaso-chism) and to the constructive aggression, linked to the erotic and that is creativity.

Eduardo Luis Cortesão, Group-Analyst
